

From: Fernando Jimenez
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/23/02 6:07pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

Quite frankly, I think I've seen enough of microsoft's monopolistic and competition bashing activities. They deserve some kind of punishment.

Money would probably not be punishment, since they can recover that. However, something serious, like prohibition of bundling explorer or msn messenger with windows. Now that would restore proper competition.

Let the users choose what they want, instead of stuffing them with their own software to kill competition.

THanks